DANCING atmosphere

Bruno de Vicq uses a cosmic aesthetic and circulations to create a dancing atmosphere of high spirits from the heavens. Circulated in heavy rotation on DJ pick-ups a sophisticated blend of deep house, house music, nu-disco and indie rock. Be a sunset (day) or at a club (night), the soundtrack is exclusive for those who enjoy contemporary and sophisticated music.

DJ by vocation and restless by nature. Not enough care with the choice of repertoire and the hectic dance floor, he unites partnerships with several musicians in jam sessions, playing alongside the likes of Breno Morais (sax), Donatinho (piano), John Felipe (electric cavaquinho), Yuri Garrido (percussion).
